

WV Scholar Contest Rules and Regulations

If you live in West Virginia, are between the ages of 16-19, and are enrolled in the 11th grade you could be the winner of a full, four-year tuition, fees, room and board scholarship.

Read official rules below.

OFFICIAL RULES

The scholarship grand prize is provided by West Virginia Wesleyan College and the Culpepper Wesleyan Scholars Award to MetroNews, to be granted to the MetroNews West Virginia Scholar Competition winner as determined by management/ College and Sponsors associated with the West Virginia Scholar Competition. The contest and rules presented below are prepared in good faith. A process that includes the selection of qualified applicants, reviews of applications, interviews of applicants and listener voting will determine the winner as described below. All decisions of the management on the process and award of the grand prize are final.

NO PURCHASE OR PAYMENT NECESSARY TO ENTER OR WIN. The MetroNews West Virginia Scholar Competition ("Contest") is open only to persons who are currently enrolled as juniors in high school in West Virginia, all of whom must be legal U.S. Residents ages 16 to 19 at time of entry who are not currently enrolled at West Virginia Wesleyan College. Parents or guardians of minors must reside within West Virginia. Sponsor reserves the right to verify eligibility to its satisfaction, and shall be the sole judge as to whether an entrant is eligible for this contest.

1. ENTRY: Contest entry begins February 15, 2023 and ends April 30, 2023. There is one method of competition entry: ON-LINE at www.wvmetronews.com. Application may be printed to gather information, but then must be submitted on-line and received by application deadline which is April 30, 2023.

Please complete entry form with your full name, address, phone number, birth date and the answers to each question as thoroughly and accurately as possible.

Each field must be answered for contest entry. Applications will not be considered if incomplete. Completion of answers will be measured in review process and in qualifying for next round. Application must be received on or before April 30, 2023.

2. PRIZE: First Prize: Four-year scholarship for undergraduate study including tuition, fees, room, and board at West Virginia Wesleyan College in Buckhannon, West Virginia. The winning scholar must enroll in the fall 2024 semester. The scholarship will be awarded for four consecutive years and will terminate at the end of the fourth consecutive school year. The total estimated value of the Grand Prize is $160,000.

Second Prize is a four-year $5,000 scholarship and third prize is a four-year $2,500 scholarship to West Virginia Wesleyan College beginning with the 2024 fall semester. These scholarships can be combined with other Wesleyan academic scholarships. However, please note that West Virginia Wesleyan has strict maximum ceilings when combining any other institutional scholarship and financial aid awards.

Under no circumstances will MetroNews be obligated to award value of prize money in monetary payment/s. Prize must be accepted as awarded and is non-transferable.

3. WINNER SELECTION: After the end of the Application Round of the competition the entries will be narrowed to up to 15 finalists, these will be selected from the qualified applicants. These finalists will be reviewed by the sponsors of the program and MetroNews. Those finalists will be voted on by MetroNews listeners, all three scores will be averaged; the West Virginia Wesleyan ranking, Sponsor and MetroNews ranking and raw vote totals. Only one (1) grand prize will be awarded. The decision of the review board and voting process is final. In the event that an entrant is not eligible, MetroNews and West Virginia Wesleyan will have the right to select another entrant as a Grand Prize Winner. The potential Grand Prize Winner is subject to eligibility verification and compliance with these official rules.
